DEAR FRIENDS OF SMUIN BALLET

Welcome to the 2014 edition of The Christmas Ballet, Uncorked! We are delighted that you are joining us in the festivities as we celebrate in classic Smuin style.

I can still remember the first performance of The Christmas Ballet in 1995. After so many years, we are happy to see familiar faces returning year after year, and to introduce new audiences to our holiday celebration. Michael Smuin never imagined his beloved production would become a tradition for so many throughout the Bay Area.

To mark this milestone year of The Christmas Ballet, I have invited four of our artists to create new works. Amy Seiwert, our Choreographer in Residence, is joined by three of our dancers in contributing new pieces. These three dancers are each in their second season dancing with us. In addition to shining on the stage, all three show great promise in their choreography.

Amy and Nicole Haskins will contribute works to our first act, Classical Christmas, and Ben Needham-Wood and Weston Krukow will provide additions in the second act, Cool Christmas.

The challenge for each of these choreographers is creating individual works that are fresh and distinctive, but that can still fit artistically within the framework of Michael's original production. The new pieces succeed beautifully!

With four brand new pieces, time-honored mainstays from the first edition two decades ago, and favorites not seen in a while, we hope this year's production will put you in the holiday spirit.

From all of us at Smuin Ballet, we wish you and your family a joyous season and a new year filled with every blessing.

Celia Fushille
Artistic Director

FOUNDER

MICHAEL SMUIN - An American master, Michael began his career as a dancer performing with San Francisco Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, and on Broadway. A Tony and Emmy Award-winning choreographer, Michael brought a signature style to his work on stage, in film, and on television. A maverick, he fearlessly blended the theatrical with the classical and popular and combined elements drawn from his vast stage experience. Michael's works continue to dazzle and entertain contemporary audiences. His company, Smuin Ballet, was founded in 1994 as a vehicle to showcase his creative versatility. Smuin Ballet maintains Michael's legacy today.

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

CELIA FUSHILLE - As a founding member of Smuin Ballet and its principal dancer for over 12 years, Celia worked closely with founder Michael Smuin. In a career spanning 25 years, Celia performed on stages in the US and internationally, and appeared on television and in film. Celia's exuberant style embraces and personifies Smuin Ballet, a dance company whose works remain accessible to the public by marrying the grace and traditions of ballet with the multi-dimensional elements of contemporary music and dance. Today, Celia oversees the artistic direction of the Company, assuring that the inspiration that began over two decades ago lives on with each vibrant season of Smuin Ballet.

MANAGING DIRECTOR

RHONDA GROSSMAN - As Smuin Ballet's Managing Director, Rhonda oversees the business operations of the Company. With over 20 years of experience guiding creative organizations towards successful outcomes, Ms. Grossman focuses on a pragmatic approach to improving the company's financial and strategic position. Her past experience includes a senior position at The Magnes Collection of Jewish Art and Life (Formerly The Judah L. Magnes Museum). She holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of San Francisco's School of Management and an MBA in Sustainable Management from the Presidio Graduate School of San Francisco.

COMPANY MANAGER

JO ELLEN ARNTZ - Jo Ellen Arntz moved to San Francisco after receiving her BFA in dance from Creighton University. A member of San Francisco Ballet from 1981-1991, she's been on faculty at Marin Ballet, Miss Tilly's and Ballet Califa, adding wardrobe and stage management to her skill set. She began at Smuin Ballet as Wardrobe Supervisor in 1996 and became Company Manager shortly thereafter. Working with Michael Smuin at San Francisco Ballet and later his own company prepared her for the multiple hats she wears in the organization today. This summer she celebrated her 18th year on Marin Dance Theatre's faculty.

PRODUCTION DIRECTOR & STAGE MANAGER

KATHRYN T. GRAHAM - K.T. joined Smuin Ballet in 1997 after working as Production Stage Manager and Lighting Designer for Lewitzky Dance Company in Los Angeles, and Technical & Lighting Director for Washington Ballet in Washington D.C. with which she toured extensively both nationally and internationally. K.T. also engages in freelance projects and has particularly enjoyed serving as Production Stage Manager for Amy Seiwert's Imagery, Dances from the Heart benefits for The Richmond/Ermet AIDS Foundation, and the National Dance USA showcase in 2012.

BALLET MASTER

AMY LONDON - Amy London received her training in her hometown of Albuquerque, New Mexico from Karen Alwin and Shauna Bereska. She danced with Hartford Ballet, Diablo Ballet and Smuin Ballet. Favorite Smuin Ballet roles included: Eternal Idol, Q.a.V. and Hearts Suite. She has served on faculty for schools throughout the Bay Area and as Artistic Coordinator at Marin Ballet where she choreographed more than twenty works. As Smuin's Ballet Master, she has enjoyed continuing Michael's legacy as well as working with and being the caretaker of the works of Val Caniparoli, Trey McIntyre, Amy Seiwert, Ma Cong, Helen Pickett, Adam Houglund, Choo-San Goh and Jiří Kylián.

ARTIST PROFILES

ERICA CHIPP (Dancer) A native of Lake Tahoe, NV, Erica trained at The Harid Conservatory in Florida before joining Festival Ballet Providence in 2004. Directed by Mihailo Djuric, she performed featured roles in Viktor Plotnikov's Cinderella, Agnes de Mille's Rodeo, Colleen Cavanaugh's Pippi and Balanchine's Tarantella, Rubies and Donizetti Variations. Erica was also a guest artist for Sierra Nevada Ballet, where she was directed by one of her former ballet teachers, Rosine Bena, in the principal roles of Giselle and Coppelia. This is Erica's fifth season with Smuin Ballet.

TEREZ DEAN (Dancer) Born in Poughkeepsie, NY, Terez was accepted into the prestigious School of American Ballet, NYC at age fifteen. There she performed with NYCB in Balanchine's Western Symphony, Union Jack, and Scherzo a la Russe. In 2005, Terez joined State Street Ballet of Santa Barbara, dancing Robert Battle's Rush Hour, Les Sylphides, and Napoli. Terez joined Smuin Ballet in 2008, and has been featured in many works: Trey McIntyre's The Naughty Boy, Ma Cong's French Twist, Val Caniparoli's Swipe, Adam Houghland's Cold Virtues, and Jiří Kylián's Petite Mort.

ERICA FELSCH (Dancer) Native to the Bay Area, Erica attended North Carolina School of the Arts before being offered a full scholarship with the SF Ballet School's Professional Program, where she performed and toured with company productions. Erica then went on to dance with Garage Contemporary Ballet, Madison Ballet, Nova Ballet, and Colorado Ballet. In 2009, Erica joined Ballet Arizona and performed both soloist and principal roles in La Valse, Sleeping Beauty, Cinderella, and Ib Andersen's Symphony Classique. After three seasons with Ballet Arizona, Erica joined Smuin Ballet. This is her second season with Smuin Ballet.

NICOLE HASKINS (Dancer/Choreographer) Hailing from Venice Beach, California, Nicole began her professional career at Sacramento Ballet and later The Washington Ballet. Nicole's career highlights thus far include her performances as "Alice" in Ron Cunningham's Alice in Wonderland, "Lucy" in Michael Pink's Dracula and "Liberty Bell" in Balanchine's Stars and Stripes. Nicole is also an experienced choreographer, who is honored to have participated in the New York Choreographic Institute where she was awarded their Fellowship Grant.

DUSTIN JAMES (Dancer) A Houston, Texas native, Dustin began dancing at the age of 11. He received his early training at Houston Ballet II before joining BalletMet Columbus. After four years in Columbus, he moved to Dance Theatre of Harlem for two years. While at the Dance Theater of Harlem, Dustin performed George Balanchine's Agon, Helen Pickett's When Love, as well as works by choreographers like Alvin Ailey and Robert Garland. He has also danced with the National Choreographers Initiative and as a guest artist with Sierra Nevada Ballet. This is Dustin's first season with Smuin Ballet.

KEVIN JAMES (Dancer) originally from Atlanta, Georgia, where he trained with the Atlanta Ballet Centre for Dance Education, Kevin graduated from Butler University with a BFA in Dance Performance, with honors. After graduation, he joined Sarasota Ballet for two years, where he performed works by a variety of choreographers, including Yuri Possokhov, John Cranko, Andre Prokovsky, and Sir Peter Wright. Kevin then danced with Minnesota Ballet for three years, where he performed solo and principal roles, such as Nutcracker Prince. This is Kevin's first season with Smuin Ballet.

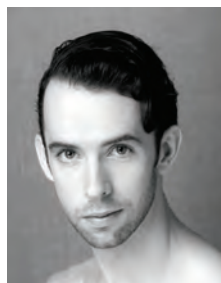

ARTIST PROFILES

WESTON KRUKOW (Dancer / Choreographer) from San Luis Obispo, Weston trained under Gilbert and Sydna Reed before attending and graduating from the University of Arizona's School of Dance in 2012. Wes' most notable principal roles while at U of A include Balanchine's The Four Temperaments (Sanguinic), Allegro Brillante, and Anne Reinking's Chicago Suite (Spirit of Fosse and Billy Flynn). Having danced with Amy Seiwert's Imagery the past two summers, Weston is now in his second season with Smuin Ballet and has fallen in love with the Bay Area dance community.

ROBERT MOORE (Dancer) danced with Boston Ballet Company where his repertoire included Mark Morris' Maelstrom and Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes, Christopher Wheeldon's Corybantic Ecstasies, Firebird and The Four Seasons, Balanchine's Four Temperaments, Theme and Variations, Serenade and Rubies and MacMillan's Winter Dreams. With Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre he danced Dwight Rhoden's Ave Maria, the male lead in Rhoden's Carmina Burana, Jay Gatsby in The Great Gatsby, Paul Taylor's Company B, Cavalier in Terrence S. Orr's The Nutcracker and Stanley when PBT became the first U.S. company to perform John Neumeier's A Streetcar Named Desire.

BEN NEEDHAM-WOOD (Dancer / Choreographer) Ben began his training in Massachusetts and is now in his second season with Smuin Ballet. He completed his formal dance training at the College-Conservatory of Music, Ohio. After graduating with distinctions, Ben spent five years performing with the Louisville Ballet where he had the opportunity to perform principal and featured roles in a variety of classical and contemporary works. Some highlights include "Romeo" in Alun Jones's Romeo and Juliet, "Armand" in Val Caniparoli's Lady of the Camellias, and featured roles in contemporary works by Adam Hougland, Helen Pickett, and Amy Seiwert, among others.

SARAH NYFIELD (Dancer) began her career at Orlando Ballet from 2004 to 2010. Sarah's repertoire includes full length ballets, some of which are; Giselle, The Nutcracker, Swan Lake, Don Quixote, Coppelia, La Fille Mal Gardee, A Midsummer Night's Dream and Spartacus. She has performed principal roles in contemporary ballets; Serenade, Who Cares, Seven Sinatra Songs and Upper Room. Sarah was a company member of the San Diego Ballet for the 2012/2013 season and a member of Company C, for the 2013/2014 season. Sarah is looking forward to her first season with the Smuin Ballet.

EDUARDO PERMUY (Dancer) from Havana, Cuba, Eduardo began his dance training at Escuela Nacional de Ballet de Cuba under the direction of Alicia Alonzo. Eduardo furthered his professional training at the Miami City Ballet School and graduated in 2003. Following his graduation Eduardo was offered a contract to become a company member with Miami City Ballet. Eduardo then went on to dance with American Ballet Theatre Studio Company, Joffrey Ballet and Ballet West. Eduardo is also a gifted and sought after guest performer and teacher. This is Eduardo's second season with Smuin Ballet.

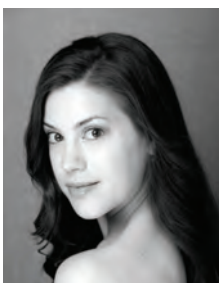

JONATHAN POWELL (Dancer) Jonathan moved all over the country before joining Smuin Ballet in 2010. Now in his fifth season with Smuin, Jonathan has performed in Trey McIntyre's Oh, Inverted World, Amy Seiwert's Requiem and Michael Smuin's Brahms-Haydn Variations, Bluegrass/Slyde and To The Beatles. Before joining Smuin, Jonathan danced with Memphis Ballet, where he discovered his love for character roles while dancing as "The Writer" in A Midsummer Night's Dream, an "Ugly Stepsister" in Cinderella, and as "The Tin Man" in The Wizard of Oz.

ARTIST PROFILES

JOSHUA REYNOLDS (Dancer) completed his dance training at The Rock School in Philadelphia and School of American Ballet in NY. Joshua danced with Atlanta Ballet for seven seasons, performing various leading roles including Romeo & Juliet and Swan Lake. In 2009 he joined Milwaukee Ballet where he performed leading roles in works by Michael Pink, Mauro de Candia and Darrell Grand Moultrie. Joshua has also performed with Tiit Helimets & Company and with Dance Grand Moultrie in NY. At Smuin Ballet, Josh has performed leading roles in Eternal Idol, Stabat Mater as well as Helen Pickett's Petal and Adam Houglund's Cold Virtues.

SUSAN ROEMER (Dancer) from Milwaukee, Susan received her training at the Academy of Dance Arts and the Milwaukee Ballet School. After joining Milwaukee Ballet II, she danced with Ballet Quad Cities, Augusta Ballet, and Northern Plains Ballet. Since joining Smuin Ballet in 2007, Susan has enjoyed dancing in numerous works by Michael Smuin, Amy Seiwert, Jiri Klylian, Trey McIntyre, Val Caniparoli, Adam Houglund, and Helen Pickett, among others. In 2011, Susan was commissioned by Amy Seiwert's Imagery to choreograph Images that Fade. Susan is also the owner and founder of S-Curve Apparel & Design, a dancewear and costume design business.

JO-ANN SUNDERMEIER (Dancer) from Pompano Beach, Florida, Jo-Ann began her professional training at Canada's Royal Winnipeg Ballet School's Professional Division. She became an apprentice with the RWB Company in 2003 and soared through the ranks to Principal Dancer. Her repertoire includes the dueling roles of "Odette/Odile" in Swan Lake, "Giselle" and "Myrtha" in Giselle, and "Princess Aurora" in The Sleeping Beauty. Additional repertoire includes works by Val Caniparoli, Twyla Tharp, Toer van Schayk, Forsythe, and Mark Godden to name a few. Jo-Ann is very excited to begin her second season with Smuin Ballet.

ERIN YARBROUGH (Dancer) Erin trained and studied dance at the Interlochen Arts Academy. Erin danced with Oakland Ballet for five years, performing the role of the 'Sugar Plum Fairy' in The Nutcracker and the lead in Cinderella. In 2003, Erin received the Isadora Duncan Award for her portrayal of Giselle with the Oakland Ballet, a role taught to her by Frederic Franklin of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo. Erin joined Smuin Ballet in 2003 and some of her highlights so far include Amy Seiwert's Revealing the Bridge, Michael Smuin's Romeo and Juliet and Jiri Klylian's Petite Mort.
